MAYOR DELIVERS VERBAL MESSAGE TO ALDERMEN

Praises Own Administration; Urges Passage of Bill for Election on Proposed $23,000,000 Bond Issue.

SOLDIER MONUMENT PROPOSED BY ALOE

President of Board Suggests Memorial to Those Slain; Praises City's Response in War Campaigns.

Mayor Kiel today opened a new session of the Board of Aldermen with a verbal message in which he praised the achievements of his own administration and urged the passage of a bill to authorize the proposed $23,000,000 bond issue election.

The re-election of 11 members of the board, he said, was an indication that they had fulfilled their pledges to the people. These pledges, he said, they must continue to keep, so as to show that promises made in the Republican platform were not intended merely to catch votes, but to advance the interests of the city.

Referring to his six years in the office of Mayor, he said: "In all that time the Board of Aldermen has cooperated with me and there has never been a serious difference of opinion. I feel that this is a better city than it was six years ago and that it has increased in population and prosperity."

Reference to Bond Issue.

In considering the issue ordinance the board should weigh all arguments carefully and should take such action as will enable St. Louis to retain its place as the fourth largest city in the country.

The people have assured that the bond issue money, if voted, will be spent to the best advantage. There will be 100 cents of value for every dollar expended."

The Mayor said one of the principal arguments in favor of the bond issue was that the improvements would give employment to thousands of men. "We can't have contented people while men are walking the streets in search of work," he said.

He asked that the board take no action in amending the zoning law without first consulting the City Plan Commission.

The chamber was decorated with flags and flowers, and there were large bouquets on the desks of the 11-re-elected members and the three new members. A particularly large floral offering was on the desk of Louis R. Aloe, re-elected President of the board.

After the meeting was called to order by Vice President Nathan Hall, an invocation was delivered by the Rev. Carl Reed Taylor, pastor of Grace Church Holy Cross House. A Credential Committee was then appointed and after it had made its report the re-elected and new members were sworn in by City Register Cundett. Chairman Aloe was escorted to the chair and appointed a committee to notify Mayor Kiel the board was in session.

Aloe, in his address, paid high tribute to the city's participation in war activities. "It is worth comment in passing," he said, "that this element (of German parentage) of our population has been one of the most responsive to every demand that has been made upon our citizens for war funds and war charities, and of desire to crush Prussianism, they contributed in no small degree to the splendid war record that St. Louis has established."

The war, he said, had delayed the execution of some plans for city improvement. "A revival of public work must now take place," he declared. He cited 11 pledges in the party platform for public works, and said that in the carrying out of these works everything possible must be done to provide work for returning soldiers, who, he said, "rightfully expect and must be given employment whereby they can earn their livelihood."

For Factory Site Commission.

He advocated the creation of a municipal factory site commission, on the Baltimore plan, supported by city funds, its functions to be the obtaining of new industries and the advertising of the city's advantages.

"The city," he said, "should create a new industrial district in accordance with the plan formulated by the City Plan Commission, and the city should purchase and own this tract of land, thus eliminating speculative profit. The district should be conveniently located and divided into lots suitable for industrial purposes, with sewers, paved streets, electric power, telephone wires, switching facilities and street car communication, said lots to be for sale at a nominal price or to be given free under certain conditions. Then manufacturers seeking location will give St. Louis much more serious consideration than it at present receives."

SPECIAL EASTER GIFT FOR ST. LOUIS CHILDREN ON WAY

It Weighs 1000 Pounds Too, and That Is Much More Than a Bunny Weighs.

The 2-year-old hippopotamus, recently purchased for the zoo, started from Washington for St. Louis in a passenger train express car at 4:15 a.m. today, according to a message received by George E. Dieckman of the Zoo Board of Control.

"Steve" will be on view at the zoo for the first time next Sunday. Dieckman says the "hippo" will be the Zoo Board's special Easter gift to the children of St. Louis, and will take the place of the traditional Easter rabbit as an attraction for the little ones, though he is much larger than a "bunny." He weighs 1000 pounds. One tip for children who visit the zoo is that "Steve" is very fond of bananas. He also likes rolled oats and bran.

The home of the hippopotamus, temporarily at least, will be a suite of rooms in the elephant house, where he will have hot water, bath and all modern conveniences. In anticipation that a great crowd will go to see him Sunday there will be regulation that visitors will enter at the west door of the elephant house and leave at the east door.

On his journey to St. Louis "Steve" is accompanied by Superintendent Blackburn of the Washington Zoo. The fare for the hippopotamus is $300. "Steve" cost $1800.

20,000 "SHOCK TROOPS" PICKED BY LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

Army Selected From Various Parts of the Country to Lead Campaign to Ratify League of Nations.

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 15.—Twenty thousand picked men and women, all well-known citizens in their own communities, have been mustered by the League to Enforce Peace to lead its campaign for ratification of the League of Nations treaty by the United States Senate.

The "shock troops," according to an announcement made at the national headquarters of the League, persons who registered at the recent conventions of the organizations held throughout the country and otherwise have pledged their interest in the cause.

In a circular letter addressed to these adherents, the league urges them to put up their hands and become part of the League of Nations. The League will then be in a position to retain its place as the fourth largest nation in the world.

Women Likely to Be Granted Vote in Tennessee Today

Bill Awaits Governor's Signature—Will Be First Southern State With Equal Suffrage.

By the Associated Press

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 15.—The bill passed by the Tennessee Legislature, under which women of the State will be given the right to vote for presidential electors and in all municipal elections, was ready today for the signature of Gov. Roberts, who is said to have stated he would sign it.

The bill just passed does not give them the right to vote in State elections, which privilege only can be given by constitutional amendment.

GERMAN HELMETS PRIZES FOR VICTORY LOAN WORKERS HERE

Awards Will Be Made to Persons Making Best Showing in Salesmanship.

New and glistening German helmets, which the Kaiser intended to be worn by the hosts of Kultur when he should review them on the Champs Elysees, in Paris, will be the prizes for salesmen and workers in the Victory Loan campaign, which begins next Monday.

The helmets sent here are part of a consignment of $5,000 sent to this country by the soldiers in Metz, Coblenz and other occupied places, as trophies for the Loan campaign.

The manner of disposing of the helmets will be determined by city chairman, director of sales and director of publicity.

The distribution of posters and printed matter advertising the campaign, through the Eighth (St. Louis) Federal Reserve District, began today.

The "Victory" button will be given to subscribers for Victory Loans, beginning next Monday. The design is white V on a field of blue, with a laurel wreath around the word "Victory," and for the number 5. It is intended that the button shall be worn on the sleeve, as a civilian service chevron.

Honor flags will be given, as in previous campaigns, to business concerns whose employees have a 100 per cent representation among subscribers.

FINES LAWYER $45, SENDS HIM TO JAIL, APPOINTS ANOTHER

Attorney Defending Soldier and Sailor or Had Refused to Abide by Judge Calhoun's Decree.

Judge Calhoun, in the Criminal Division of the Circuit Court, today fined Attorney James E. Dee $45 and committed him to jail for refusing to abide by a decree in overruling his motion to quash a proceeding against his clients, and when Dee was locked up, Judge Calhoun appointed another lawyer to proceed with the case.

Dee represented Richard E. Kelly, a sailor, who was charged with robbery in the first degree. It is alleged that they attacked and robbed William P. Boeckeler of 5129 Washington boulevard, in the rear of 2912 Pine street, the night of March 19 last, after Boeckeler had bought them meals and otherwise befriended them.

When the case came up for trial today, Dee made a motion to quash the indictment, on the ground that the articles of war had been violated in diverting the accused of the triple alliance from the court-martial.

"I had got out of my machine and started to walk to my home. Three young men ran up and commanded me to put up my hands. I reached for my pocket to get my wallet. There was about $1500 in it. The leader had his pistol against my stomach. When I reached for my wallet he pulled the trigger. After he shot me I said to him: 'This is a crime to shoot me when I'm willing to give you all I've got.'

Never Saw Men Before.

Becker, who was rapidly weakening, was unable to tell whether he handed the wallet to the robbers or whether they took it from him. When Dee was locked up, Judge Calhoun appointed another lawyer to proceed with the case.

"I had to go out of my machine and walk to my home. Three young men ran up and commanded me to put up my hands. They demanded money and shot me while I was being held at gunpoint. They were all wearing uniforms," he said.

"I'm shot," he said. "There were three of them. They demanded money and shot me while I was being held at gunpoint. They were all wearing uniforms," he said.

BRODERICK GIRL AND MOTHER HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Child Who Killed Stepfather
as She Did Father, Repeats Story of Slaying at Inquest.

MAN DEAD HAD FEARED FAMILY, SISTER SAYS

Doctor Testifies That the Wounds in Plumber's Head
Contradict Part of Girl's Account of Shooting.

Ursula Broderick, 13 years old, of 6042 Wells avenue, a telephone operator, was held for the grand jury today, after a Coroner's jury had returned a verdict of homicide in its investigation of the death of her stepfather, Joseph F. Woodlock, 45, whom the girl shot and killed in the bedroom of their home yesterday morning. Her mother, Mrs. Lillian Elizabeth Woodlock, 28, was also held, by order of Deputy Coroner Dever, who said that the grand jury should determine whether she was an accessory before the fact.

The girl shot and killed her father, Thomas P. Broderick, two years and a half ago, and was exonerated by a Coroner's jury at that time, on her statement that she was acting in defense of her mother.

The character of the three wounds in Woodlock's head caused the Deputy Coroner to question the girl closely, at today's inquest, as to his position at the time of the shooting. The autopsy physician had said that the bullets ranged downward, whereas the position which the girl had described would seem to indicate that their range should have been upward.

Man Feared Death.

The Deputy Coroner's order to hold Mrs. Woodlock was given after he had talked with Woodlock's sister, Mrs. P. C. Lennon of 6935 Maple avenue, who was not a witness in the inquest. Mrs. Lennon said Woodlock had said to her that he had lived in fear, and "had to sleep with one eye open." She also said the Woodlock was about to receive a share of the estate of his father, who died recently. She did not state the amount of the prospective inheritance.

The girl, in her testimony at the inquest, repeated her story, told yesterday, that Woodlock had crawled up from her bed to his, in their common sleeping room, after her brother had risen, and had placed his hand over her mouth. She said she had carried the revolver in her pocket for a week, because Woodlock had threatened such an attack, and that she took the revolver from a napkin which had been wrapped around it, and snapped the trigger several times.

The girl said she was awakened this morning, Woodlock standing over her, placed his hand over her mouth, and that he then dragged her to his bed, telling her that resistance would be useless. She repeated what she said was his first command, but said he made a further threat, which she refused to repeat, and that she then began firing the revolver.

Mother Had Warned Girl.

The mother, in her testimony, said she had instructed the girl what to do in case Woodlock should attack her, as she said he sometimes had threatened, when drinking, to do.

"I told her," Mrs. Woodlock said, "to throw something through the window, so as to break the glass, and then to shout for help."

She said her husband came in at 12:30 a. m., but she could not say whether he had been drinking more than usual. She was asked particularly whether Woodlock was awake when she left the bedroom, and she said he was, and that she was talking with him.

She told of finding the bedroom door barricaded with a chair, after the shooting. The girl said, in her first story yesterday, that Woodlock must have placed the chair against the door.

Mrs. Woodlock said she ran out of the house to a neighbor's home without knowing who had been shot. The neighbor testified that she said the girl had been shot. When she returned to the house with the neighbor, she said, the girl met her, saying, "You are the cause of it all." This meant, the mother has previously explained, that the girl had been trying to persuade her to leave Woodlock.

Mrs. Woodlock was asked whether Woodlock had life insurance. She said she did not know.

AUTO HITS BOY, SPEEDS AWAY

Bad Is Taken to Hospital Seriously Injured.

Police are seeking the driver of an automobile who sped away after striking and seriously injuring Meyer Loenstein, 9 years old, of 1694 Tower Grove avenue, at Tower Grove and Metcalf avenues, at 6 p. m. yesterday. The boy suffered internal injuries and a crushed foot. He was taken to the Lindell Hospital, 3755 Lindell boulevard.

Gus Seipt, 45, of 3443 Louisiana avenue, suffered a fractured leg and internal injuries at 4 p. m., when struck by an automobile driven by Nicholas C. Kotovich, 2914 Locust street, at Broadway and Washington avenue. He was taken to the city hospital.

Victory Loan Posters, Painted by Famous Artists, Which Are Being Distributed Today

Painted by Clyde Forsythe.

THE advertising campaign for the Victory Liberty Loan was opened today by the distribution of great numbers of posters, which have been painted by famous artists. Three of these posters are here reproduced.

Howard Chandler Christy's contribution shows a young woman—the famous "Christy girl"—hanging a wreath of laurel over a list of names labeled "America's Honor Roll." Among the names are those of the many nationalities that have fallen in battle as the American lines have moved forward to make the world safe for democracy.

Gerrit A. Beneker's poster shows a workman digging into his pocket for money with which to buy a bond, saying at the same time, "Sure, we'll finish the job."

"And then they thought we wouldn't fight!" is the title of a poster by Clyde Forsythe. It shows an American soldier with his steel helmet cocked on the side of his head around which is a red-stained bandage, with a German helmet in either hand and his rifle across his shoulders, obviously returning from a victorious combat. It is one of the most stirring of all the Victory Liberty Loan pictures.

PRESS COMMENT ON POST-DISPATCH'S STATE EDITORIAL

specie charge which is rather serious. It points to the low rank of Missouri's public schools. This indictment is true, but it does not apply to all parts of the State. Springfield's public schools are as good as any in the country. The St. Louis newspaper mentions that Missouri has dropped from fifth to seventh in population. There are special reasons for that. Texas is one State that passed Missouri, and in time it will pass every State in the Union. Its enormous growth is due to the fact that Massachusetts is the other State that went above Missouri, and there are special reasons for that. Massachusetts is a great manufacturing State. The flow of ignorant foreigners in recent years has become something enormous. These foreigners, as a rule, are cheap workers in factories. That is the secret of the Bay State's growth. It has brought up a problem which Massachusetts would probably be glad if it did not have.

NEW CONSTITUTION DEBATE IN SENATE SHOWS LACK OF SERIOUS AIM ON BIG ISSUES

Post-Dispatch Editorial Discussed in Connection With Effort to Engross Bill—Adjournment Taken to Save Measure.

By Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 15.—One of the most important matters of legislation introduced at the present session of the Legislature is a bill providing for the calling of an election in August to determine whether the voters of Missouri desire that a constitutional convention be held to draw a new Constitution to replace the antiquated fundamental law of the State. The bill was called up for engrossment in the Senate yesterday afternoon and was debated two hours, when an adjournment was taken to prevent it from being killed by unfriendly amendment.

The following report of the Senate proceedings is given in greater detail than usual, because of the importance of the measure, and for the additional reason that the attitude of the Senate on the measure is a fair example of the lack of serious intention with which all big problems are approached in that body.

When Senator Duncan of Lincoln County asked for unanimous consent to take the bill up out of its regular order, Senator Gardner of St. Louis arose with an objection. As an objection would make necessary the suspension of the rules and as that would mean a long parliamentary fight, Senator Duncan asked him to withdraw his opposition.

"I do not like to object," Gardner replied, "but your bill cannot pass, so I don't see the use of wasting time over it."

"But I would like to have it engrossed," replied Duncan.

"Very well," Gardner said. "I will withdraw my objection, but I would like to ask if your bill follows the Constitution?"

"It does," replied Duncan.

Method of Amending.

"Please explain the method of amending the Constitution," Gardner said.

"First," Duncan replied, "there must be an election to determine whether the people want a constitutional convention held. Second, there must be an election of delegates. Third, a convention must be held. Fourth, an election must be held to vote on the adoption of the Constitution drawn by the convention."

"I would like to ask the Senator from Lincoln," Gardner interrupted, "if he read the double-column editorial in yesterday's St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and if he consulted the author of that editorial before he called up his bill."

"If the metropolitan newspapers of the State were called upon to leg, there would probably be some differences between them," Duncan replied.

"Do you think," Gardner asked, "that the writers of these editorials would be competent to sit as members of the Legislature?"

"I do not, Mr. President," Duncan replied.

The proceedings then continued.

Senator Casey of Kansas City: Did you get an estimate from the Secretary of State as to the cost of holding the election?

Senator Duncan: Estimates were made, but I can't say by the Secretary of State.

Senator Cunningham of Shannon: Could this election be held at the regular primary?

Senator Duncan: I think not. The Constitution provides the exact method.

Senator Gardner: There should be several amendments to this bill. I was under the impression this bill had not been reported from the committee and was not on the calendar. I should like to have time to prepare an amendment.

Senator Reynolds of Buford: Would you lay this over until Senator McCullough gets back? He also has a bill like this.

Senator Cunningham: This has been changed to conform to Senator McCullough's ideas. As no bill which passes the Senate after the 18th will be considered by the House, there is no time to lay this over. It has been worked out by experts and needs no amendments.

Had the Bill Two Months.

Senator Buford: The committee which had this bill for a week or two days, two weeks (the committee in fact had it more than two months before reporting on it, although the Senate rules require a report within 20 days) could not find that there was any provision for an appropriation to pay the expenses of this convention.

Senator Duncan: Yes, it is in the last paragraph, $100,000.

Senator Buford: Who is this all-powerful, wise editor of the Post-Dispatch who has named members of the Legislature certain names. He is for the bill; you should know him?

Senator Duncan: I cannot answer the Senator.

President Pro Tem Goodson, presiding: The question is not pertinent.

Senator Buford: I should have objected to the bill being considered if I had been in here when it was brought up. It ought not to be engrossed today. Senator McCullough has a bill in here on this.

Senator Duncan: Senator McCullough announced several days ago that he would speak before the Chamber of Commerce in St. Louis tomorrow. If we should delay this until his return, it would be too late to pass it.

Senator Buford: If the House does not change its rule about not considering Senate bills passed after April 15, there will not be any Senate bills passed.

Senator Duncan: What more inter-

I have not much patience with the great clamor from people who ought to have sense enough to know better, especially the press. I don't know who writes these academic editorials. Certainly they are not inspired by the correspondents who sit here on this floor. You find what they look upon things much as the legislators do. You do not get from them such editorial tirades as this in the Post-Dispatch yesterday. I am glad to get a rise out of these editors. If you followed them you would pass laws that they would howl to have you repeal at the next session. If you would talk to the men who write these things they would tell you privately that this is no time to write a new Constitution. There is too much Bolshevik talk now. The clamor comes from educational sources and from some cities. This is because the amount raised by taxation for these particular interests is not enough, according to their ideas. All that is necessary is to raise the assessed valuation of property and there would be enough. (Senator Gardner voted to abolish the State Tax Commission.)

Senator Stark: Are you opposed to a convention, or just opposed to en-grossing this bill?

Senator Buford: I don't know. I have been trying all this session to find out, and now (holding up the Post-Dispatch editorial) I have all this paper to digest.

Senator Stark: Do you pay attention to the papers or the voice of the people?

Senator Buford: There are a few things here. This editorial is based on the bill. Yippe! Peanut politicians! If I vote for this, I may be a yip; if against it, a peanut politician.

Senator Stark: What is a peanut politician?

Senator Buford: That is what I want to get drawn out, if I can. (Reading from editorial.) Yap! Yap! Peanuts!

Senator Stark: I want to know if the Senator is talking against time or against the bill.

Senator Gardner: There are a number of Senators absent, some from St. Louis and Kansas City, who are interested in the subject. I think we should delay it until another time.

President Pro Tem Goodson, presiding: I did not recognize the Senator for a motion to adjourn. He was recognized to speak on this amendment.

Senator Gardner: There has been a complaint, though not voiced by the editor of the Post-Dispatch, that senatorial districts have been so gerrymandered that the vox populi could not shake the Democratic majority in the convention. When you get a convention so largely Democratic you could not tell what would happen. Under this bill there would be 24 Republicans and 44 Democrats.

I am not ready to subscribe to that sort of arrangement at this time.

President Pro Tem Goodson, presiding: I did not recognize the Senator for a motion to adjourn. He was recognized to speak on this amendment.

Senator Gardner: There has been a good Constitution or we may not. If the people want this question submitted, they have the right. There certainly has been enough indications that they do want it. The amendment would make this act unconstitutional, as the present Constitution provides what shall be the qualifications of delegates, that their qualifications shall be the same as Senators.

President Pro Tem Goodson, presiding: I did not recognize the Senator for a motion to adjourn. He was recognized to speak on this amendment.

NEW CONSTITUTION DEBATE IN THE MISSOURI SENATE

The Post-Dispatch says about us is correct, they can sit. This is an enabling act. I haven't much use for enabling acts. We are merely exercising the function given us by the clamor that I read this Post-Dispatch article. This same editorial writer appeals for the workmen's compensation law, yet three-fourths of the business men of St. Louis are against it. This same editorial writer, who lives off these business men, is for it. I don't know what explanation the business end of that newspaper makes when it appeals to the business men for advertising. This clamor from the press should not be given attention, especially when the writers who sit at the press table on this floor. I have never heard them use such phrases as those in this article. They are gentlemen."

Senator Gardner's amendment then was voted down.

Senator Buford offered an amendment to make the appropriation for expenses for the convention $200,000 instead of $100,000. (Gov. Gardner, although he has recommended a new Constitution in his message to the Legislature, has privately said to members of the Legislature that he did not know where the State would get even $100,000 for the purpose.)

Pays Third of Revenue.

Senator Buford: I read from the Post-Dispatch editorial St. Louis pays more than one-third of the revenues of the State, but when St. Louis business men ask anything of the State, what do they get? Scorn and laughter from the peanut politicians and the yaps. Yaps and peanut politics are superior to business. The Government is run for their benefit. Peanut politics controls the St. Louis delegations. The majority of the delegation stands with the yaps against the city and its vital interests. So the St. Louis Senators have joined with the yaps. That must mean that the yaps are we fellows from the country. So the peanut politicians must be those from the cities. I want to know who the peanut politician is.

Senator Wix of Bates: I want to know who the yaps are.

Senator Buford: I think that means you and me and the other country members.

Senator McGruder of Pettis: I have been listening to the discussion about yaps. I have looked that word up in the dictionary. The trouble with you, that you couldn't find it, is that you have been looking among the d's instead of the y's. You think damn and yap are one word. They are two words. A yap is a "snappish bark."

Senator Duncan: I have not complained about that editorial. I have always heard if you throw a stone in the dark and hear a howl—but I won't go further with that. I am not howling.

Senator McGruder: I am not howling or yapping, but I am interested in yap. If yaps meet to draw this Constitution they won't howl very long on $100,000. We should give them enough. If there was less yapping and more work, the State would be better off. This applies to the House, to the Senate and to the newspapers.

Senator Buford: I just want to read to you what the conventions which have framed the most recent constitutions in other states have cost: Alabama, $200,000; Arizona, $196,000; Arkansas, $185,000; California, $201,000; Connecticut, $111,000; Delaware, $171,000; Florida, $210,000; Georgia, $188,000; Idaho, $151,000; Illinois, $246,000; Indiana, $211,000.

Senator Stark: Don't you know that if we had a new Constitution it could contain provisions for just tax laws which would pay the whole cost in one year?

Senator Buford's amendment was adopted.

Offers Another Amendment.

Senator Gardner offered an amendment to change the provision concerning the number of petitioners required to nominate a candidate for delegate to the convention to require 20 per cent instead of 5 per cent of those voting for State Senator in the last senatorial election.

Senator Casey offered a substitute to eliminate entirely the nomination by petition and leave the nomination to the regular primary laws.

Senator Stark: I favor the substitute. The capitalists would circulate the petitions and control the elections and the convention.

Senator Duncan: The substitute and the amendment should be voted down.

Senator Casey's substitute was adopted.

Senator Gardner moved to adjourn under the rules. Senator McGruder and Senator Casey asked permission to make reports from committees. Senators McClintic and Duncan objected. Gardner withdrew his motion. McClintic insisted that the bill should be engrossed. Senator Pickett of Grundy moved to adjourn under the rules. The motion failed.

Senator Casey offered an amendment to strike out a section of the bill providing an appropriation of $7500 for the Missouri Library Commission to provide information the convention might require. It was adopted.

CASEY WORLD PUT IT OFF.

Senator Casey offered an amendment to provide that the election should be held in 1923, instead of this year, an amendment most obviously intended to kill the bill.

Senator Casey: "I don't think this is a proper time to call a convention. People have been calling on 125 to 140 pounds of steam. The industrial situation is unsettled. A convention should not be called in the next two years."

Senator Stark: If steam is up to 140 pounds now, won't it be 150 in four years? The water is in the boilers, and the fires are burning."

Senator Cunningham offered a substitute to hold the election in 1920. This was lost, and the amendment then was defeated.

Senator Duncan and others supporting the bill, seeing that the opposition was determined to amend the bill to death if they could kill it in no other way, did not oppose a motion by Senator Stark to adjourn under the rules, leaving the bill as unfinished business.

HORSEMAN WITHOUT LEGS

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, April 15.—A horseman without legs was the extraordinary sight witnessed the other day in the Bois de Boulogne.

The rider, an old cavalryman, used a side saddle, to which he was buckled for safety by a strap attached to the back of his belt. He was accompanied by a mounted attendant. The spectators showed their admiration for the plucky war victim, whose love for the saddle had overcome what to most people would seem an insurmountable obstacle.

CENTRAL HOME
THE ARTS IN ST.

St. Louis Art League
for a National Exposition
Be Held Here in 1930

A central home for the Arts in St. Louis is put forward as a definite undertaking for the St. Louis Art League, in an effort to the members by the Executive Committee. A special meeting of the executive committee was called for Thursday to consider the proposed building and the special committee.

This move is put forward as a program as preparatory to something of a lasting character. One of these projects is set forth at the Exposition of Art in the Industries of the Americas held in this city in 1929, to be led up to by a less ambitious display of "Art in the Industries of St. Louis," to be held September.

These projects, while suspended during the war, are revived and urged as essential in a peace program for St. Louis' national advancement.

Communique to members.

A communiqué to members of the Executive Committee, urging these plans, cites the importance of the League and the need for the home of the arts whence these enterprises will be prosecuted. A special meeting of the League was called for Thursday to consider the proposed building and the immediate establishment of working headquarters.

The "Community Center" carried on in war times in Camp Community Service, established with the St. Louis Art League, is named as one of the St. Louis art expressions to be fostered by the league as a permanent development to the leadership which has been for this city.

Competitions in various and scholarships in aid of public school pupils are among the Art League prizes now being carried on to be increased in year. The competition for composers is to be resumed. Art League plan for the year, announced two years ago, is to be taken up as a permanent development.

Arts of the Theater.

The arts of the theater made a feature of attention and encouragement for St. Louis in these fields. Recently drama competition plays as examples of what the League has accomplished. Pageants, impromptu dancing as forms of civic expression is to be made the subject of competition and promotional efforts of various kinds, which have been features in the Art League are to be increased in number. Local art centers are projected at which the means for effective action in various art fields will be.

In announcing the new Art program the Executive Committee putting into effect the plan at the annual meeting of the League last winter, upon which a committee has been appointed.

CENTRAL HOME FOR THE ARTS IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis Art League Has Plans for a National Exposition to Be Held Here in 1920.

A central home for the arts in St. Louis is put forward as an immediate undertaking for the St. Louis Art League, in an announcement to the members by the Executive Committee. A special meeting of the executive body has been called for Thursday to consider suggested buildings and the report of a special committee.

This move is put upon the Art League program for immediate execution as preparatory to enterprises of striking character. Chief among these projects is set forth a "National Exposition of Art in the Life and Industries of the Americas," to be held in this city in 1920, which will be led up to by a less ambitious local display of "Art in the Industries and Life of St. Louis," to be held next September.

These projects, with others set aside during the war, are now revived and urged as essential steps in a peace program for St. Louis and national advancement.

Communication to Members.
A communication to members from the Executive Committee, confidently urging these plans, cites many enterprises being conducted by the Art League, and the need for a central home of the arts whence these enterprises can be prosecuted more advantageously. Steps deemed essential to St. Louis art leadership are set forth and made dependent upon the immediate establishment of a working headquarters with facilities.

The "community sing" movement, carried on in war times by the War Camp Community Service, in co-operation with the St. Louis Art League, is named as one of the St. Louis art expressions to be especially fostered by the league and given a permanent development to maintain the leadership which has been seized for this city.

Competitions in various art fields, and scholarships in aid of art study, for public school pupils and others, are among the Art League enterprises being carried on which are to be increased in scope this year. The competition for musical composers is to be resumed, and the Art League plan for municipal music, announced two years ago, is now to be taken up as a timely movement.

Arts of the Theater a Feature.
The arts of the theater are to be made a feature of attention, with encouragement for St. Louis genius in these fields. Recently produced drama competition plays are cited as examples of what the league wants to accomplish. Pageantry and interpretive dancing, significant forms of civic expression in art are to be made the subject of competition and promotional effort. Exhibitions of various kinds, which have been features in Art League work, are to be increased in number and size. Lectures and art conferences are projected at which ways and means for effective action in these various art fields will be considered.

In announcing the new Art League program the Executive Committee is putting into effect the plans adopted at the annual meeting of the league last winter, upon which a number of committees have been at work.

School Bill Engrossed.
JEFFERSON CITY, April 14.—The House yesterday engrossed the school bill. An amendment offered by Frank Farris making the law optional with each county, which was declared by friends of the bill to destroy its value, was adopted.

IT'S YOUR LIVER! YOU FEEL BILIOUS, HEADACHY AND SICK

Don't stay constipated with breath bad, stomach sour or a cold.

Enjoy life! Liven your liver and bowels tonight, and feel fine!

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the "nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never grip or bother you like calomel, salts and pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give emetics, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time. They are harmless and children love them. ADV.

BIG AMERICAN FOOD SHIPMENTS BEING SENT INTO GERMANY

By the Associated Press.
COBLENZ, Sunday, April 13.—The sum of 7,000,000 marks was deposited on Saturday at headquarters for the Third Army by the Germans to pay for food supplies for civilians in the area occupied by United States forces. During last week the sum of 9,000,000 marks was deposited for this purpose by the Germans.

The first food train started from France this morning, its cars being loaded from American army depots. The supplies bought by the Germans include 300 tons of bacon, 300 tons of rice, 1300 tons of flour, 100 tons of corned beef and 22 tons of evaporated milk. The first shipments have been sent to Treves, Coblenz, Neuwied and Montabaur, and distributed throughout the district at uniform prices fixed by the German Government.

At conferences with Col. George P. Tyner, assistant chief of staff in charge of transportation and supply, the Germans were represented by Dr. A. S. Happmann, liaison officer for President Ebert to the Third American Army, and before the war a professor in the University of Vermont. The Germans are arranging to buy all supplies that army is willing to furnish until the allied commission has completed the details of the arrangements for feeding the people in all the occupied zones. Encouraged by being able to purchase from the army, the Germans have requested tobacco, sugar and soap, but these requests probably will be refused, it being desired to sell more essential products.

TWO COLONELS FROM ST. LOUIS GET D.S.M.

Lieut.-Col. A. T. Perkins Organized Light Railway Service for A. E. F.

Two St. Louis Colonels in the recent war are among 100 officers who have been awarded Distinguished Service Medals by order of Gen. Pershing. They are Col. Nathaniel Allison, 4915 Berlin avenue, chief of orthopedic work in the army, and Lieutenant-Colonel A. T. Perkins, 16 Portland place, who was director of light railways.

Col. Perkins has returned to St. Louis and resumed his position as railway adviser of the St. Louis Union Trust Co. Col. Allison recently returned to St. Louis, but now is on duty at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington.

Col. Janies D. Fife, who came to St. Louis to take command of Base Hospital Unit No. 21, which was recruited here, and who took the unit overseas, also is named for the war.

Col. John C. H. Lee, who was in charge of execution of operations of the Eighty-ninth Division, in which there are several thousand St. Louisans, was similarly rewarded.

Citation of Col. Allison.

The citation of Col. Allison follows:

"Col. Nathaniel Allison, U. S. A. For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. As chief of the orthopedic work in the zone of the army, he personally directed, in a most efficient, conscientious and painstaking manner, splinting and orthopedic work, which resulted in the saving of many lives and greatly relieved suffering among our wounded."

Col. Allison went to France with Base Hospital Unit No. 21 as a Captain. He was twice promoted. He is a son of James W. Allison of 627 Clara avenue and was assistant professor of clinical orthopedic surgery at Washington University.

Col. Perkins' Citation.

Col. Perkins' citation follows:

"Col. A. T. Perkins, U. S. A. For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. As deputy and later manager of light railways he undertook the task of organizing a light railway service for the American Expeditionary Forces. His long and complete railroad experience and knowledge assured the success of these lines. By his foresight in promptly gathering from the United States a generous supply of railway material, he quickly brought the light railway service to a high degree of efficiency."

Col. Perkins had 20 months' overseas service to his credit when he returned to St. Louis. He went to France as a member of the Fourteenth Engineers. His subsequent promotion gave him control over the movements of the Twelfth (St. Louis) Engineers.

Col. Fife and Col. Lee.

The citation of Col. Fife follows: "Col. James D. Fife, U. S. A. For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. In command of Base Hospital No. 21 he served with distinction with the British expeditionary forces. He was later assigned to duty in the office of the chief surgeon, in charge of hospital planning and construction, procurement of permanent buildings, establishment of hospitalization, liaison with the French authorities. The general staff and with the engineers. In the performance of these multifarious duties he displayed conspicuous ability."

The citation of Col. Lee was:

"Col. John C. H. Lee, U. S. A. For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. In the preparations for the drive on the St. Mihiel salient in September and for the Argonne-Meuse offensive in October, 1918, he had charge of the detailed arrangements for and the subsequent execution of the operations of the Eighty-ninth Division. The successes attained by this division were largely due to his splendid staff co-ordination, marked tactical ability and sound judgment."

FRENCH CABARET SINGER LEADS ORPHEUM BILL

Mlle. Nitta-Jo Revelation in Voice and Dramatic Power.

Mlle. Nitta-Jo, a Parisian cabaret singer, appearing in America for the first time, deserves headline honors on a bill of unusual merit at the Orpheum this week. It has been a long time since the Pandora box of vaudeville has produced for St. Louis an artist of such fine quality in voice, intonation, enunciation and dramatic action. Posture and gesture, no doubt the result of long and careful training, seem to come so natural to this little French woman that they have all the charm of spontaneity. With a setting which represents an obscure cafe in the "Apache" quarter she sings in French and English. The best of her French songs is a half-recitative dramatic lyric whose translated title is "The Soldier's Dream," and the most stirring of her offerings in English are "Jim" and "I'm There."

Bessie Clayton puts on an ambitious dancing act in which her own acrobatics are supplemented by Elsa and Eduardo Canino, a wonderful pair of Spanish dancers, and by the lithe, limber and bouncy James Clemmons.

One of the amusing bits on the bill is Harry Langdon's act entitled "Johny's New Car." The car is part of the act. The car is right there on the stage and its versatility in having something new the matter with it every minute keeps the fun going. The Willie Brothers have an unusually skillful pole and ladder balancing act. Edith Clifford sings topical songs engagingly, the Barr Twins dance with four feet that beat as one and Jimmy Lucas is back in his foolish sketch, "Willie Ravings of 1919." Moving pictures of coast towns in Venezuela are shown.

The One Thing You Cannot Leave Behind You

That sound judgment which now guards and governs your business must go with you—you cannot bequeath it to your heirs.

Your estate, however, may have the protection of your sound judgment if you will have your attorney name the St. Louis Union Trust Co. executor and trustee under your will.

On account of its stability, its strong organization of trained trust company executives, and its capital and surplus of $10,000,000.00 with no demand liabilities, the St. Louis Union Trust Company is in a position, for the same fee, to handle your estate with greater wisdom, economy, and efficiency than any individual possibly could.

Our officers will be glad to discuss this matter with you.

There Should Be a Good Refrigerator in Every Home

Food is the greatest thing in the world—the most necessary to human existence.

Every individual is entitled to food to sustain life.

But, there is never enough to go around and it is estimated that from two to five million people starve every year.

Therefore, it is a sin to waste it or throw it away.

One quarter of an ounce of butter wasted in each American home every day amounts to 114,000,000 pounds a year. One ounce of meat wasted means 456,000,000 pounds of meat in a year.

Our Annual Food Waste is $65,000,000.00

L. S. Osborne, head of the Waste Disposal Conservation Section of the Food Administration says: "Twenty-nine cities with a total population of 17,000,000 are discarding annually 1,200,000 tons of garbage which is producing 70,000,000 pounds of grease valued at $8,500,000 and 150,000 tons of fertilizer valued at $2,250,000."

One-sixth of the population, therefore, annually discards in garbage $10,760,000, making a total national waste of approximately $65,000,000.00.

A great share of this loss is caused by lack of Refrigeration in the home.

It is the Duty of Every Family to Prevent Food Waste

A Refrigerator is an economical, humanitarian and patriotic investment.

In addition to this it is a great comfort.

24 STATES REPRESENTED AT INSURANCE CONVENTION HERE

State Commissioners to Take Up Financial Troubles Resulting From Influenza Epidemic.

Twenty-four states are represented at the meeting of the National State Insurance Commissioners' convention which opened for a two days' session at Hotel Jefferson today.

C. W. Fairchild, Commissioner of Colorado, is chairman of the meeting, and Joseph Button of Virginia, secretary.

Matters relative to financial problems created among insurance companies by the influenza epidemic and the question of legislation for uniform laws governing insurance supervision in the various states will be considered.

A resolution introduced by Commissioner Button, which seeks the abolition of a 16-per-cent surcharge levied by some of the fire insurance companies because of abnormal war conditions, aroused discussion for further action. The question of a uniform date for insurance companies to file their annual statement also was discussed.

Plans for entertaining the delegates include a dinner at Hotel Jefferson tonight, when St. Louis insurance men and Commissioner Harry of Missouri will be hosts.

W. U. COAST ARTILLERY UNIT

Application Is to Be Made to the War Department.

Unanimous decision for a coast artillery unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps has been reached by the Military Committee of Washington University, and application for its establishment at that institution will be made at once to the War Department by Chancellor Hall. Formal request also will be made for the appointment of Capt. D. F. Hardaway, an alumnus of the university, class of 1909, as instructor in that science.

Capt. Hardaway has been abroad for a year or more, with a cavalry field artillery organization, and is strongly recommended by Maj. W. D. Upton, who brought about the decision for the new military unit at the university. The minimum enrollment for the coast artillery unit is 50.

FALLS THREE STORIES FIGHTING

Two Men Crash Through Window at Duluth Hotel; One Killed.

By the Associated Press.

DULUTH, Minn., April 15.—In a fight that police say started over a poker game, Peter Johnson, 25 years old, and Frank Vogler, 24, crashed through a window in a room on the third floor of the Esmond Hotel here last night, and fell three stories to the pavement.

Johnson was instantly killed, and Vogler horribly crushed, and is dying in a hospital. Seven arrests were made in connection with the affair.

Chicago Employers Found Studying the Problem of Democracy in Industry

Labor Party of Illinois New Factor in Politics—Business Situation Described as Fairly Good.

By DAVID LAWRENCE,
A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, April 15.—Seven years

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bone Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and Increase Strength, Vital and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being made with the purpose of making thin people flesh, developing arms, neck and bust, and regaining health, angles, the soft curves of health are beauty there are evidently many men and women who have been able to withstand their excesses.

Wanting to remedy, which is a step further ahead than this thing was before.

Bolshevism, to be sure, as it is known abroad, hasn't paid in any appearance here. Socialists and radicals are actively trying to accomplish demands, many of them extremes, by political methods. They may not elect their candidates—labor is far too unorganized for that—but they may prod and stimulate the regular parties to meet some of these demands.

To keep Republicans and Democrats from joining the Independent Labor party will be the task of the political leaders throughout the State. Competition for popular support at the polls thus ensues. Even the most radical of the progressives, while deplored much of the agitation, reluctantly admits some benefit may be derived from it. Labor, for instance, may get representation in the constitutional convention soon to be held.

Demobilization and Business
Demobilization has been faster than employment, but the situation here is not serious. Every day there is evidence, however, of the error of the War Department in demobilizing through military centers, rather than with local draft boards. Many soldiers who stay in the cities may decide to try other kinds of work. Jobs are being found at the rate of 100 a day, but applicants number an average of 400.

Many positions would be available if certain technical men could be gotten out of the army at once to start processes in which large numbers of other men would then be employed.

Conditions are far from normal, but a man who has lived among working people for 25 years, and who understands the relations of capital and labor from an intimate yet impartial viewpoint, told me he had seen days much more serious in the history of Chicago, and that while business was naturally in some suspense, due to uncertainties over foreign trade, peace delays and other causes, the situation might be described as fairly good, and with every reason to expect that the present spirit of co-operation would near a weathering of the storms and squalls of reconstruction days.

50,000 VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR 5 BRANCHES OF ARMY SERVICE

Special Inducements Offered to Previous Service Men—Negroes for Philippines Only.

Fifty thousand volunteers for the army, between 18 and 40 years old, are wanted for immediate service in Europe, Panama, Hawaii, China or the Philippines. The branches open are infantry, cavalry, field artillery, engineer corps and the medical department.

The recruiting stations in St. Louis are at Third and Olive streets, Jefferson Avenue and Broadway, Olive Street and Grand Avenue and Pontiac Building, Seventh and Market streets.

The enlistment term is for three years and is for white men only, except negroes for cavalry in the Philippines.

War-time pay, $30 a month to start with continuous free clothing, board, lodging, medical and dental attendance. Foreign service pay, an increase of 20 per cent, begins the day the transport leaves the United States.

Previous service men may re-enlist for one year or three years. Men who re-enlist immediately following discharge will receive a 30-day furlough and travel allowance of 5 cents a mile and a bonus of $60 besides. Those enlisting for three years will be given service overseas if they want it.

By Wire from the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Senators widely differ regarding the changes in the constitution of the League of Nations. Some think the covenant has been rendered innocuous. Others insist that the modifications have made the league a disappointment to its friends. Some predict ratification by the Senate without prolonged delay, while others believe the fight will continue and be successful.

Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican, announced that his objections to the league constitution had not been removed and that he still would oppose it, because it would commit the United States to alliances with European and Asiatic Powers and oblige this country to take part in the "conflicts and turmoils of Europe;" "would compel the United States to assume the obligation of guaranteeing the territorial integrity and political independence of all nations; leaves the entire machinery of the league in European and Asiatic Powers; contains ineffective provisions for disarmament; contained inappropriate and wholly inadequate safeguards for the Monroe Doctrine; failed to provide any machinery for the application of the principle of self-determination of nations," and "failed to provide any check or control over the five or nine men within whose unlimited and undefined discretion rests the question of peace or war."

"I think the real issue is now formed and the real contest now begins," he said.

Senator Hardin's Attitude.
Senator Hardin, Republican, Ohio, intimated that the changes indicated would not meet the objections of those who oppose a league. He said the covenant would be useless, as nothing could be done without a vote to be done by unanimous consent.

"The statements about the amended draft are so involved that I do not care to discuss it at this time," said Senator Johnson, Republican of California. He will oppose any league unless adequate provision is made for control of purely domestic affairs, such as immigration.

"I believe the amended constitution will meet the objections of most of the Senators who have opposed the original draft," said Senator Hitchcock, Democrat of Nebraska. "A good many of them were not extreme in their opposition, and I am afraid that will be ratified by the Senate. I hope when the President left here to return to Paris it was his intention to obtain amendments to the league constitution which would meet the objections raised in this country and clarify the meaning of the covenant."

Senator Walsh's View.
"Personally," said Senator Walsh, Democrat of Montana, "I do not believe there is any vital difference between the original draft and the amended form. I never was alarmed about the Monroe Doctrine or the immigration question. I do not think the amendments will satisfy Senators Borah, Reed and Poindexter. I could not say whether they will meet the objections of Senators Knox and Lodge. They have said things in the Senate which would indicate that the amendments will not meet their desires. From conversations I have had with other Senators who desired amendments to the league constitution, these will satisfy them, probably Senator Lenroot, for instance."

"I believe, as amended, it is very much of an improvement over the original draft," said Senator Pomerene, Democrat of Ohio. "It certainly protects the Monroe Doctrine. I believe the new constitution will disarm criticism. I am convinced it will satisfy many of the Republican Senators who objected to the original draft. Those who opposed the league are finding out that the public wants the league; wants the substance, and is not particular about the trappings."

SCHMOLL FIGHTING BILL TO OPEN BANK BOOKS TO ASSESSORS

Director of Public Welfare Schmoll, who also is president of the Tower Grove Bank, is working against House bill No. 148, now in the hands of a committee of the Legislature.

The bill, introduced by Representative Farris, provides, Schmoll says, that assessors shall have authority to examine the books of any bank, learn the amount of deposits, including time deposits, ascertain the amount of money in safe deposit boxes and assess it at full value, thus requiring the man assessed to pay taxes at the rate of $2.25 per $100 of valuation.

In the event the bill passes, Schmoll says, it will have the effect of causing considerable loss of all deposits, and he predicted that 25 per cent of the deposits thus withdrawn from St. Louis banks will be deposited in East St. Louis banks, where there is no law similar to the one proposed by Farris.

In addition to large withdrawals on the part of depositors, people with demand loans will be called upon to pay them, and it is not improbable that persons paying for Liberty Bonds on the instalment plan will immediately be required to pay in full by the banks carrying the load.

The bankers of St. Louis, Schmoll said, are opposing passage of the bill, and he asked Republican members of the Legislature from St. Louis to fight it.

WEBSTER GROVES GIRL WHO MARRIES TODAY

Miss Margaret Jones.

MISS MARGARET JONES TO BE MARRIED TODAY

Will Become Bride of S. L. Whipple Jr., of Brookline, Mass., in Webster Groves Church.

ONSPICUOUS among the spring weddings is that of Miss Margaret Cassandra Jones, who will become the bride of Sherman Leland Whipple Jr. of Brookline, Mass., this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The ceremony will be solemnized at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church of Webster Groves, with the Rev. J. Courtney Jones officiating. Miss Virginia Jones, the bride's sister, will be the maid of honor, and little Irene Pettus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pettus, will be the flower girl, with William Pickering Jones, the bride's young brother, as ring bearer.

Milton Shaw Kimball of Bath, Me., a former classmate of Mr. Whipple, will serve as best man, while the ushers will be the bride's cousin, Capt. Wilkins Jones, Lieut. Stephen Avery and Marriott Morrison. The bride will wear a gown of white satin, the bodice and skirt draped in rare old Brussels lace, which is an heirloom in the family. It has a double court train of the satin lined with flesh-colored georgette, and trimmed with the same rare lace. Her tulle veil will fall from a corner of the lace and orange blossoms and will be caught to the train with clippings of orange blossoms.

She will carry a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor will be gowned in peachblow-colored satin, trimmed with cream lace and touches of turquoise blue ribbon. She will wear a large black tulle hat and will carry a bouquet of sweet peas tied with turquoise blue tulle. The little flower girl will wear a frock of turquoise blue georgette and will carry a basket of sweet peas, while the ring bearer will wear a white sailor suit.

Following the ceremony there will be a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. Whipple and his bride will depart for the East, and after May 15 will be at home at "Clydehurst," the home of Mr. Whipple's father at Brookline, and later the couple will make their home in Webster, Mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones of Webster Groves. Following her graduation at Mary Institute in 1917, she made her bow to society as a maid of honor at the Velled Prophet's ball and since then has been very popular. She is a sister of Paul Jones Jr., now in France, whose engagement to Miss Helen Watts was one of the important announcements of the spring season.

Mr. Whipple, prepared at Westminster School, Stamford, Conn., for college, and had just entered Yale in the fall of 1916 when he left to go into overseas service as an ambulance driver in the French army. Later he entered the Transportation Division and when the United States entered the war he returned to Boston and entered the Harvard R. O. T. C. after which he was sent to Camp Lee, Va. Just before his commission was granted the armistice was signed and he was released from further military service.

Mr. Whipple's father, Sherman Leland Whipple, counsel for the United States Shipping Board, and his sister, Mrs. Lothrop Withington, formerly Miss Katherine Whipple of Brookline, came on to attend the wedding.

Social Items

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Woodruff, who formerly resided at 49 Kingsbury place, have returned to the city after an absence of over a year, while Dr. Woodruff was in the service, and are staying at the Washington Hotel.

Mrs. Samuel McPhee Mrs. Mrs. Sahs Lehmann, Mrs. Humphrey Gifford, Misses Carlota Glasgow, Julia Tyler and Georgette Madill are a committee of the Junior League who will have charge of the sale of articles made by the patients in the workshop run by the league at Barnes Hospital. The sale will take place tomorrow in the rose parlor of the Birmingham Hotel from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon.

Miss Jeanne Farmer of 5802 Westminster place, entertained last evening in honor of Capt. Andrew Weatherby Beauchamp-Proctor, the second British ace; Capt. Thomas Traill, another British ace; Capt. William P. Erwin, American ace, and Capt. Howard Powell of the American Air Force, who are members of the Victory Loan Flying Circus which gave an exhibition here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Louis B. Woodward of 6223 Westminster place, entertained with a luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Clarence Johnson of San Francisco, formerly of St. Louis, who is visiting here.

Mrs. William P. Ladd, wife of the dean of Berkeley Divinity College of Middletown, Conn., will speak before the Wednesday Club tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on "The British Labor Party." Mrs. Ladd is a graduate of Newnham College. She has written for various English and Canadian Reviews and has been an active member of the Independent Labor party, the Woman's International League, and other like organizations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Woodruff of 415 Clara avenue are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, whom they will name Mary Ellen. Mrs. Niedringhaus was Miss Elizabeth Holladay.

Spring is no time for blood poverty

What makes this charming girl of seventeen so rosy and glowing, so apt at her studies and sports? It is because she is full-blooded, rich-blooded, red-blooded. For her, Spring is the season of new energy and keen living in the out-of-doors.

What makes your daughter so pale and dull-eyed, so listless and anemic? Why has she no appetite for food, study, or play? Why is her tongue coated? Why does she suffer so from headaches, dizziness, indigestion, and palpitation? It is because she is weak-blooded, thin-blooded, watery-blooded.

For her, Spring is the season of fretting and ailing, and every sudden shift in the weather saps all her energy and force.

Fortunately, impoverished blood can be quickly righted. A few weeks' treatment with Gude's Pepto-Mangan, "The Red Blood Builder," will work such improvement that your daughter can return to her studies and pleasures, and be once more able to derive full benefit from springtime air, exercise, and good food.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Gude's Pepto-Mangan increases the number and oxygen-carrying capacity of the red blood cells. It improves the color, because it radically improves the source of good color, the blood. It increases the appetite and fills the whole being with new strength and vitality. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is easy to digest, promptly assimilated by the blood, and a splendid general tonic. It is widely endorsed and prescribed by the medical profession.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is made only by M. J. BREITENBACH CO., Manufacturing Chemists, New York

FRIENDLY WARNING:
There is only one Pepto-Mangan and that is Gude's. Sold in bottle and package as shown here. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Unless you have the genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan, don't buy any other Pepto-Mangan.

The Magic Touch of Ice-Mint Does It. Just a Touch Stops the Soreness, Then the Corn or Callous Shrivels and Lifts Off. Try It. Your Feet Will Feel Cool and Fine.

Thanks to a new discovery made from a plant product your foot troubles can be quickly remedied.

Ice-Mint, as this new preparation is called, is said to shrivel up hard corns, soft corns or callous between the toes so that they can be lifted out easily with the fingers.

Rub a little on any tender corns. Instantly the soreness disappears. The corns cost little yet is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callous. You'll like it immensely.

Ice-Mint is a clean, creamy, snow-white, non-poisonous substance and does not inflame or even irritate the most sensitive skin. There is no pain, smarting, or even biting sensations while applying ice-mint or aftercorns. It acts so gently, so magically that you will never want to run the risk of blood poison by cutting a corn again.

Ask your druggist for a small jar of ice-mint. It costs little yet is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callous. You'll like it immensely.

RECEPTION AT CITY HALL FOR FRENCH ARMY BAND

Veterans Who Will Play at Coliseum Next Monday to Be Guests at Luncheon.

The program for the civic reception that will be accorded the French Army Band, which will give a patriotic concert at the Coliseum Monday evening, has been completed. The band came to America on the special invitation of Secretary of War Baker to participate in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, and is touring the country before returning to France. Every member is a veteran of the world war.

The band will arrive in St. Louis Monday morning. As the musicians composing it are invalid veterans who are incapable of marching, they will be taken through the city in automobiles over a short line of march to Hotel Statler.

At 10 a.m. the band will be tendered a public reception on the steps of the city hall, where Mayor Kiel will make the welcoming address. A special entertainment committee, headed by Marc Seguin, French consul here, will then escort the veterans on a tour over the city, and to the City Club, where they will be guests at luncheon, at which G. V. R. Mechlin, president of the Societe de Francalise, will preside.

GLENDY ARNOLD ADVOCATES WOMEN AS ELECTION JUDGES

Tells Equal Suffrage Association in Address They Would Also Make Better Canvassers.

Women as election judges would be excellent safeguards for honest elections, Glendy B. Arnold, chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners, told members of the Equal Suffrage Association of St. Louis, in an address in the league's offices in the Century Building yesterday. He said that most fraud in elections occurred after the polls closed and that most of it would disappear with women on the boards.

He further said that he thought women would make more conscientious precinct canvassers than men. "Men spend $100 a day and most of the day in a saloon," he said. Arnold told the women that they should not lose interest after voting once or twice, but should continue to cast their votes at every election.

TWO GIRLS ARE FOUND ON STREETS, UNCONSCIOUS

One Lay Beside Lindell Drive in Forest Park; Other Picked Up in Maplewood.

Two girls were found unconscious on the streets last night and taken to hospitals.

One was found at 11 o'clock by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, 2918 Franklin avenue, at the edge of Lindell drive, just east of the River des Peres in Forest Park, on the south side of the drive. She was unconscious and was taken to Barnes Hospital.

She is about 20 years old, and was attired in a blue serge suit with a long cord around the waist, black shoes, gray silk stockings, a black straw hat trimmed with four cherries and yellow ribbon. She has blue eyes and light hair. Policemen were told that doctors could not find any traces of poison or any marks of assault on the girl's body. She is about 20 years old, who was only able to give his name as A. Neal, was found apparently asleep and attired only in a night dress seated on the curb near Maple and Sutton avenues at 1 a.m., by Thomas S. Brown and Charles Schwartzman, both of Maplewood. They took her in an automobile to the Mounted District Police Station and from there she was removed to the city hospital. She has dark hair and brown eyes. Physicians said she was suffering from hysteria.

QUILT MADE BY BRYAN HILL PUPILS RECEIVED BY PERSHING

Letter to Head of Children's Loyalty League Acknowledges Gift Sent for Christmas.

A white satin quilt which the children of Bryan Hill School chapter of the Children of American Loyalty League embroidered and sent to Gen. Pershing last November as a Christmas gift, has been received by the General, according to a letter from him which has come to Mrs. Nat. S. Brown of St. Louis, national president of the league. It follows:

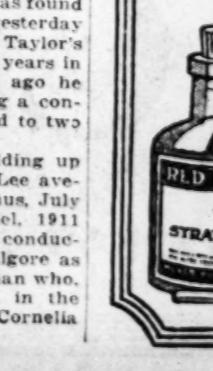

"With reference to your letter of March 5, I am very pleased to inform you that the package containing the embroidered quilt reached me a few days ago, and I beg of you to thank the children of the Bryan Hill School chapter for their sincere thanks for their beautiful gift. I deeply appreciate the motives which prompted them to send it to me and shall prize it always as an additional token of the splendid loyalty of the children of America, which from the first they have shown in so many ways."

FORMER POLICEMAN GETS FIVE YEARS FOR ROBBERY

Birl Kilgore, a Month Ago, Was Sentenced to Two Years for Carrying Weapon.

Birl Kilgore, a former policeman and United Railways conductor, was found guilty of highway robbery yesterday by a jury in Circuit Judge Taylor's Court, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. A month ago he was found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

He was charged with holding up a robbing a residence on a Lee avenue at its western end, about 12:30, 1917. William F. Daniel, 411 State street, East St. Louis, conductor of the car, identified Kilgore as the robber, and also as the man who on Aug. 2, 1917, shot him in the hand in a fight on a car at Cornelius and Lee avenues.

EFFORT TO UNITE 5000 INDUSTRIAL CONCERN

A. J. Davis Heads Organization
Begun at Kansas City to Bring
New Industries to State.

An effort to unite 5000 industrial concerns of Missouri in common purposes of advancement and defense was begun in Kansas City yesterday, when officers of the "Associated Industries of Missouri" were elected, A. J. Davis of St. Louis, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and president of the Employers' Association of St. Louis, being made president. The conference is continuing today.

Some of the general purposes of the association, as set out by discussion at the first meeting, are: The encouragement of new industries to come to the State; the preparation of legislation that will insure capital a fair return on its investment and the discouragement of untried and radical legislation as disturbing to business; the encouragement of railroad development and the greater use of the Mississippi River for shipping, and the promotion of constructive relationship between employer and employee. It is planned that on all matters affecting business in the State the new association will cast a unit vote.

Other officers elected were: Conrad M. Kamm, Kansas City, first vice president; G. Batrell, St. Joseph, second vice president; W. J. Dysart, Springfield, third vice president; John L. Green, St. Louis, treasurer, and William Rogers, St. Louis, secretary.

The central office will be in St. Louis, with branches at Kansas City and St. Joseph.

The board of directors includes Davis, Mann, Dysart of the officers; E. J. Miller, W. A. Layman, H. H. Allen, F. C. Rand of St. Louis; C. C. Peters and Walter S. Dickey of Kansas City; G. M. Johnson, St. Joseph; H. J. Young, John C. Adams, D. R. and W. P. Andrews.

Among those in attendance from St. Louis are: Henry H. Allen, vice president; Bemis Bros. Bag Co.; W. A. Layman, president Wagner Electric Co.; E. J. Miller, president St. Louis Screw Co.; W. Palmer Clarkson, vice president Pioneer Cooperage Co.; Frank C. Rand, president International Shoe Co.; John L. Green, president Laclede-Christy Clay Products Co.; Walter C. Hecker, vice president Curtis & Co.; Alex Tebelman, manager Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co., and Albert J. Davis, vice president St. Louis Chamber of Commerce.

MOST OF 30,000 MEN WITH FLEET ON LEAVE IN NEW YORK

Taken About the City in Auto Trucks and Society Women Point Out Things of Interest.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 15.—With the Atlantic fleet riding at anchor in the Hudson, having surprised New York yesterday by reaching port from maneuvers in Southern waters nearly a day ahead of schedule, shore leave, today granted to a majority of 30,000 sailors and marines, was the first real shore leave the men had since America entered the war and they made the most of the opportunity.

During their stay here of 15 days there will be no parades or "official" receptions, in accordance with the wishes of the naval authorities. Instead the men will be entertained in various ways by the war service organizations. Numerous dinners, special theatrical performances, athletic exhibitions and dances have been arranged.

The most popular entertainments today were sight-seeing tours, the men being driven about the city in flat-top automobile trucks, escorted by motorcycle policemen. Instead of the usual megaphone "harker" prominent society women pointed out the sights.

Thousands of persons visited the ships during the day. There are 103 warships in the fleet, stretching from Forty-second street to Spuyten Duyvil, the most powerful armada assembled in American waters.

DEAN LADD SPEAKS TONIGHT

Dean W. P. Ladd of Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn., who is conducting services this week at Christ Church Cathedral, Thirteenth and Locust streets, will speak there tonight on "Are We a Christian Nation?" He will also speak at mid-day services at the cathedral through the week.

In his midday address yesterday, on "Judas, the Money Lover," Dean Ladd charged that some business interests had hampered the work of providing jobs for returning soldiers. These interests, he said, caused the failure of a measure to appropriate money needed for the work of the United States Employment Service.

SINN FEIN THREAT TO POLICE

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, April 15.—Introducing a bill in the House of Lords today providing for compensation in the case of constables or other public servants suffering injury or death in execution of their duty in Ireland, the Lord High Chancellor quoted from a Sinn Fein counter proclamation issued in Tipperary in February after the declaration of military law in that district.

The proclamation threatened that after a trial date any policeman, magistrate or juror in the pay of the British Government found in that district would be deemed to have forfeited his life.

The Meaning of "No Stropping—No Honing"

HERE is the famous Gillette Diamond-Trademark—the mark of the one great shaving invention in all history.

"No Stropping—No Honing" brands the blade as the highest type of shaving edge ever developed—a blade new in principle, in steel, temper, finish and use.

The term "No Stropping—No Honing" will appeal to every man anxious to eliminate unnecessary labor and save valuable time.

It characterizes a hard-tempered, long-lasting blade, which has supplanted the blade that you have to strop and hone to boost it up to its work.

HEADQUARTERS OPENED BY SOLDIER WELCOME COMMITTEE

Work on "Court of Honor" Expected to Begin This Week; Parade Route Also to Be Chosen.

Headquarters for the Mayor's welcoming committee, of which Edward Hidden is chairman, formed to arrange for the reception of the returning St. Louis soldiers, were opened in the Chamber of Commerce today and will be maintained until the last St. Louis unit has arrived home.

Walter B. Weisenburger, secretary of publicity for the Chamber of Commerce, was appointed secretary of the committee.

Director of Public Welfare Schmoll is chairman of the Scope and Plan Committee. He will consult with architects for the design of securing adequate plans for the erection of a "Court of Honor" in Twelfth street. Work is expected to begin on this stand this week. Arthur Siegel, chairman of the Parade Committee, will map out a permanent route to be taken by all units of St. Louis soldiers parading in St. Louis.

At a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the city, to be held at the city hall tomorrow afternoon, Festus J. Wade, chairman of the Finance Committee, will appear and ask that the city set aside an appropriation of $50,000 to help defray the expenses of the reception. Wade will also attempt to raise a similar amount by popular subscription.

A general meeting of the committee, together with the auxiliary branches, will be held in the office of the Mayor tomorrow, at which time definite plans will be submitted for the program to be followed.

DENTISTS CONTINUE SESSION

The second day's session of the fifty-fourth annual convention of the Missouri State Dental Association opened at Hotel Statler this morning with a table clinic conducted by Louis J. Weinstein of New York, Gillette Hayden of Columbus, Ohio, and Boyd Bogle of Nashville, Tenn.

Approximately 650 dentists have registered for the convention, among whom are many well-known specialists. This afternoon's session will be featured by four lecture clinics, when "Dental Ceramics," "Pedodontia," "Root Resection" and "Prophylaxis" will be the subjects discussed by the speakers.

The dentists will be entertained at fraternity luncheons at noon. At 4 p.m. a general session and election of officers will be held and a stag cabaret, luncheon and smoker will be held at 9 p.m.

The convention will close tomorrow afternoon.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat, also take glass of salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; get some any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also neutralize the acids, so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; has a delightful effervescent little water droplets which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—ADV.

NEGROES CELEBRATED FOR 920 ALL DAY AND MOST OF NIGHT

Celebration at the Coliseum Included Dancing for Many Hours and Vaudeville Show.

The celebration of negroes of St. Louis in honor of negro soldiers of the Ninety-second Division and others from camps in this country, which began yesterday morning with a downtown parade, continued through the day and night at the Coliseum.

The negroes packed the Coliseum to its capacity and danced and sang until an early hour this morning. At midnight a vaudeville performance lasting about an hour gave the dancers a breathing space, and after the performance the revelry was begun again.

Mayor Kiel, Director of Public Welfare Schmoll, Herman Bader, Robert Moore and Lieutenant-Colonel Otis B. Duncan occupied a box together at the Coliseum, and were introduced to the merrymakers. On behalf of the St. Louis Boosters, an organization of negroes formed early in the war to promote the welfare of men of their race in the army, Mayor Kiel presented gold buttons and pocketknives to the soldiers.

At a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the city, to be held at the city hall tomorrow afternoon, Festus J. Wade, chairman of the Finance Committee, will appear and ask that the city set aside an appropriation of $50,000 to help defray the expenses of the reception. DENTISTS CONTINUE SESSION

About 200 citizens of Maplewood met at the Maplewood High School last night under the auspices of the Maplewood Civic League and discussed ways to raise money for Maplewood schools.

Wilfred Jones was selected as chairman of an organization that was formed to promote interest in a school levy of $1.25, to be held in the near future. He will begin by appointing two committees, five men and five women, to start the campaign to arouse Maplewood citizens to the urgent need for additional funds for the schools.

At the April 1 election Maplewood voted down $1 levy for general school purposes and a 15 cents levy for maintenance of school buildings. Each proposition was lost by 100 votes. Members of the School Board attribute the failure of the measures to apathy on the part of residents.

Maplewood schools now receive a levy of 40 cents from the State, which, it is said, will provide only sufficient funds to maintain the schools for four months. There are 1600 pupils and six schools, including the high school in the Maplewood district.

BARTENDER SHOTS TEAMSTER, BUT REFUSES TO TELL WHY

Says Man Started Toward Him in Argument in Saloon; Is Arrested and Released.

Joseph L. Cooney, 25 years old, of 907 Walton avenue, a teamster, was reported in a critical condition at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium today from a bullet wound in the abdomen inflicted yesterday at 2 p.m. by David Leahy, 40 years old, 4932 Natural Bridge avenue, bartender in the saloon of Nick Tock, 4914 Natural Bridge avenue. Leahy and Tock were arrested and released on bond.

Leahy admitted the shooting, policemen say, but said he could not tell what the argument was about that led to it. He said Cooney started toward him, swinging a pistol and he fired one shot. Tock said police he was in front, near the cigar counter, at the time, and did not see the shooting. He refused to give police the names of two other men in the saloon at the time.

Police report Tock's saloon was cited to the Excise Commission after Tock's arrest on Oct. 13, 1918, for selling liquor on Sunday. They arrested Tock at that time, they reported. A report of the shooting was sent to the Excise Commissioner's office.

C. RIVER MEETING TODAY

Will Make Trip in Harbor With 45 Members.

The first meeting of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce on inland waterways, including 45 members, was called for this afternoon aboard the city's harbor boat, Erastus Wells, by the chairman, W. J. Edwards.

The boat will go about the harbor, with A. W. Mackie, manager of the Government River Service, pointing out improvements that have followed the establishment of regular towboat service between St. Louis and New Orleans.

As is known, the city is completing a modern towboat dock at the foot of North Market street, the end of which is in operation. The River Service also is using an East St. Louis terminal and several grain elevators have been equipped for river shipping.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be practically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

The Wearing of Chevrons, Etc.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Why do not the military authorities or civil authorities exercise proper control over the men in uniform on the streets of St. Louis and cause these men to wear the proper markings of their service and rank? In the last few days I have noticed several men on the streets with no allied, French or Italian "service" bars on their chest and yet wearing a wound stripe on their right sleeve and maybe a Croix de Guerre ribbon which usually is very soiled and therefore very inconspicuous. Also many of these men wear A. E. F. issue uniforms instead of white or grey or grey with officer's braid around the sleeves, and wear only one or two gold chevrons on the right sleeve. Now, might I ask who the men who were wounded, or were overseas and not worn chevrons, did not get overseas and wear silver service stripes, are not made to observe uniform regulations? They should all get serge clothes and should by all means be made to wear the "Allied Service Bar" and one other bar, preferably a red, white and blue, sold by all good dealers in military equipment as the "French Service Bar." Also they should be made to wear a silver or gold star on their left sleeve directly above their service stripes and at least 10 per cent should wear two red discharge chevrons instead of one. Officers as well as men should be instructed to dress correctly so every one may see and learn our army markings. Officers from the A. E. F. should particularly wear their Sam Browne belt after they receive their discharge and are again citizens. Of course, naturally, every officer is made acquainted with existing regulations about the Sam Browne belt when he lands from the ship, but those regulations surely do not exist in St. Louis; therefore, all A. E. F. officers surely should wear their belts on our city streets.

Now, perhaps, during the last two weeks, during which time I have been a civilian, I have missed several changes in the uniform regulations, then again, during the 23 months in the army as an enlisted man and an officer, 18 months of which were spent overseas in service, perhaps I didn't learn the regulations thoroughly; however, something looks wrong somewhere in the uniforms one sees on the streets and something should be done about it. We ex-soldiers in civilian clothes would appreciate the printing of this in your paper.

JAMES S. ATKINS.

In Defense of the Police.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

"Up to the Jessie James Standard," in today's Post-Dispatch, was very good, but on the editorial page of one of our local papers we read the following:

"We want robbers and find how easy it is in St. Louis they will all come here." This same paper wanted to know if the police thought the Baden bank robbers would be sitting on the sidewalks waiting for them to come. Such bunk as this should not appear in print. I think our police have at this time the worst lot of criminals to deal with that St. Louis has ever had, and everybody should aid and assist them in their task and stop knocking. We have a good police force and they are doing everything in their power to stop the crime wave now sweeping St. Louis. We should give them credit and encouragement. According to reports, the Baden bank robbers were only four minutes on the job. All I have to say is, if they expect a policeman to pass every corner every four minutes, they will have to give the Chief of Police more men. But, above all things, throw away the hammer.

A. J. HILDEBRAND,
Manager of the Odeon.

Increasing the Police Force.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

We were reading in the Post-Dispatch of a recent vote taken by the Rotary Club wanting to increase the police department to 1200 men. Why not reinstate men that were good police officers who were not afraid to go after bendits or any other work pertaining to police duty; reinstate men who were fired for little or nothing and were first-class officers? Then the police board would have ready-made officers—would not have to break them in—men who, if reinstated, could work a beat tomorrow.

MANY EX-OFFICERS.

Daylight Saving Unpopular.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Would your paper take up the abolishing of this daylight savings before Congress goes in session? You do so much and can do so much. A great many people, and I mean them in the working world, would like to go to the old time hours. It is hard getting up the early; it actually takes an hour out of your life. I am sure if this matter was taken up through your paper it would get the results and please so many. It was only intended for wartime, but no one wants it now. Please give this your attention and don't think it is from some crank or complainer, but I speak for many, many people with whom I work and come in contact.

A WORKING WOMAN.

THE UNITED RAILWAYS PROBLEM.

In the matter of the United Railways receivership, Judge Dyer has done his duty with fidelity to the best judicial standards. In appointing Judge Lamm master and Rollie Wells received the selected men of capacity and integrity in whom the public has confidence.

The responsibility for the operation of the company and its reorganization on a sound basis of public service rests in large measure with Mr. Wells. With the highest regard for Mr. Wells' character and capacity and confident of his honest intentions, we take the liberty of reminding him of the extraordinary conditions of the problem with which he has to deal.

Through criminal corruption, financial juggling, lawless mismanagement and legal trickery the company has been brought not only to financial ruin, but to moral bankruptcy. It has earned utter lack of confidence and bitter hostility from the public, and while the receiver must utilize the information and experience in routine of the existing management, the public will be profoundly disappointed if the men whose counsel, guidance and direction have brought the company to its present state of moral and pecuniary wreckage are permitted to retain power and influence.

The people of St. Louis expect and have a right to expect a new deal and a square deal, in which service at cost and a fair return on honest investment are the controlling factors. They want service adequate to the needs of the city and the returns the owners of the property are entitled to on a just valuation. They want the company taken out of politics, burglary and the lobby and kept in the street railway business.

The accomplishing of these things requires capable, progressive counsel and capable, progressive direction, untautled by former aims and methods. In short, the United Railways needs to be turned around and started in the opposite direction from that in which it has been going. Doubtless Receiver Wells and Judge Dyer understand the situation, but we feel justified in emphasizing the public standpoint.

KILLING OF JUDGE DIVELBISS.

A local feed at Richmond, Mo., had a shocking result in the death of Circuit Judge Frank P. Divelbiss. The death of so valuable a member of the State judiciary is more than a matter to be deplored in the particular circuit on which he served. All Missouri is the poorer from the loss of a man of his courage, integrity and clear perception of the needs of the times.

Even one such man as Judge Divelbiss would be a powerful aid in the battle which has already begun and which will increase in intensity in the months of the future, to rehabilitate Missouri and restore it to its former high rank among the states.

THE INTENSIFIED CRIME PROBLEM.

Two experts on the operative side of criminology who are temporarily residing in our State Penitentiary have favored the Post-Dispatch with their views on the prevalence of crime in St. Louis.

Their advice has a disinterested, philosophical quality to be expected, despite the fact that they are isolated from professional opportunity for a considerable term of years. That crooks colonized in Chicago for the municipal campaign are scattering, since "Big Bill" Thompson's election, some heading for St. Louis, is one of their theories on the causes of the accentuated crime problem. For all other cities to adopt special precautions immediately after all elections held in Chicago might prove an excellent preventive rule in future years.

A more serious suggestion is that closer watch be kept on river crossings and the railroad station for the detection and restraint of well-known criminals on their arrival in town. Good results from its adoption might be expected, especially while crimes of violence are being committed with such unusual and alarming frequency. But manifestly it is not the work of adepts that makes the present outbreak of outlawry exceptional. It is the work of virtual amateurs and it is to be feared that a deplorable percentage of them are St. Louisans. Of 12,397 arrested, 4305 were men between the ages of 20 and 30 years.

After all the relative immunity of cities from depredation depends, as these convicts kindly suggest, on the individual efficiency and the team work of the police and not less on the workings of the courts. That the St. Louis department has not yet recovered from the effects of the summary action of the commissioners and partial organization recorded some months ago will be held by many who are concerned because of the intensified crime problem. And we know that our courts have too frequently erred in imposing mild sentences on dangerous offenders.

With the 1100 burglaries and 218 holdups since Jan. 1 and a total property loss of $161,335, it is evident that the time calls for extraordinary measures. The city must move more energetically in relieving employment conditions. The Police Department must be put in a condition of preparedness for resisting depredations. For the courts to fail at any point in duty the city has a right to expect of them would creat a most painful impression.

MORE BOOKS FOR THE SOLDIERS.

The European representatives of the American Library Association, who are charged with the duty of supplying reading matter for the soldiers detained in Europe, are making urgent appeals for more books and magazines. They have written and cabled the Washington headquarters, calling attention to the lack of reading matter and the importance of a good supply, as an aid to the morale of the soldiers during their long period of waiting.

There is a demand for books of fiction, instructive and informing books, and volumes of poems. One of the cablesgrams reads: "Demand for books unbelievably great and supply inadequate. Rush all possible shipments."

With the breaking up of those encampments on this side that are not to be permanently maintained, such books as are to be found there will be sent to Europe, but this will not nearly fill the need. Tons of books and magazines are called for, to be distributed at the various recreation centers and military organizations. The Library Association has instituted a mailing system to supply individual soldiers, which distributed 45,000 from the Paris headquarters in January. But what are 45,000 books in an army of 2,000,000?

In a foreign land, with an unknown tongue, book or magazine from home, in the soldier's own language, is doubly welcome. But, while time hangs heavy on their hands, the soldier boys are not reading solely for amusement. They are seizing the opportunity to educate themselves. This is shown by the big demand for books that are educational.

We at home can easily fill this need. Here in St. Louis the Public Library will receive contributions of reading matter, and there are also boxes at downtown corners that can be filled. Tons of books and magazines should go forward as fast as ship space can be spared for transporting them.

NESTING.

AMERICANS AND EUROPEAN PEACE

From the Chicago Tribune

THE AMERICAN people are for a league of nations because they want peace.

Do the European people want peace?

The Finns are fighting Bolshevik Russia.

The Poles are fighting the Russians,

The Germans, the Ukrainians, and the Czechoslovakians. The Estonians are fighting the Russians and the Germans.

The Lithuanians are fighting the Poles and the Russians. The Ukrainians are fighting the Russians and the Romanians.

The Romanians are fighting the Ukrainians and the Jugoslavs. The Jugoslavs are fighting the Poles and the Hungarians. The Hungarians have been fighting the Czechs, the Poles, the Romanians and the Jugoslavs. The Jugoslavs are fighting the Hungarians and are ready for war with the Italians and vice versa.

Each of these peoples prefers other things above peace. They could all have peace if they preferred peace with compromise to war for territory or control of territory. We are yet to learn whether the French prefer peace to the Saar Valley or whether the Germans prefer peace to the loss of the Saar Valley; whether the Jugoslavs prefer peace with the loss of Flume or war for its possession; whether Great Britain prefers war to a number of alternatives in the way of negotiations and commitments which we need not specify; whether Japan prefers peace to the expansion of her control in a number of directions which we need not specify.

Looking at the European scene, it is difficult for peace-loving America to find any overwhelming disposition to keep out of war. We can find there every passion except that passion for peace of which we have heard so much from the pacifists. The Kings are gone, but the people of the old world are still carrying on war, cutting each other's throats, burning each other's towns, ravaging each other's fields, as from time to time the memory of man runneth no to the contrary.

The league of nations, we are told, is to bring all that. But how? The miserable Americans who all over this country are "for a league of nations" would do well to examine this question. If the European peoples want some things more than they want peace they will not make peace until they get them, and as they can't all get them since they want the same things, they will make war unless they are compelled to do so.

They rather wished a death of heroes than a shameful life of cringing slaves.

On every hillock, field or mountain,

On every valley to the sea

They hewed and mowed the Roman hills.

In mud, revengeful ecstasy.

Five lives for mine and then I care not!

That was the war cry of the bravos.

They vowed. And kept this death avowal.

Before they found their early graves.

And where a hero made his bed,

God—to immortalize the place—

Had planted flowers crimson-red,

Defying, proud, yet full of grace.

Does this God's gift, the Carmel Rose,

But live in honor of the dead?

Does she not symbolize new life,

New hopes, new heroes and new strife?

THE CARMEL ROSE.

(The author of this poem, Lieutenant-Corporal Elias Ginsburg, came to the United States from Palestine four years ago. He came to St. Louis in May, 1918, and soon afterward enlisted in the Jewish Legion recruited by the British Government to serve in Palestine under Gen. Allenby. He became a sergeant in November, and was promoted to corporal until February last, when he was released from the army to serve with the Zionat Commission to Palestine. The poem was written while he served.)

A MIDST tall palms and old Zelzous,

Near lairs, near dens and ancient caves,

Near murmur'ing springs and dead lagoons,

Near battered, shattered, age-worn graves;

On mighty cliffs where eagles dwell,

On kingly mounts that cast a spell,

Of wondrous deeds of years gone by—

Tinged purple like a dawn-flushed sky.

A flower grows called Carmel Rose.

Though furious rains attack her head,

Though hails and winds do shower blows

She stands unbroken, crimson-red.

What gives this tender flower might

To conquer in unequal fight?

To withstand storms and rain and hail?

There is a legendary tale.

When Jacob's tribes were rent asunder

By quarrels, treachery and strife;

And grosses with sword and arrow

Had sought to end Jehuda's life.

When Titus with his Roman legions swooped down like hawks on easy prey;

And Jacob's children panting, bleeding,

Though beaten yet unconquered lay.

Then rose from every town and village

He had been looking moodily out the ballroom, but he turned to her quickly, at this, saw that her eyes were sunny and content, over the top of her bouquet; and he continued to smile.

"Girls are usually pretty fresh!"

he said. "They ought to go to a man's college about a year; they'd then taught a few things about freshness! What you got to do after 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon?"

"A whole lot of things. Every minute filled up."

"All right," said George. "The house is fine for sleighing; I'll come over you in a cutter at 10 minutes after two."

"I can't possibly go."

"If you don't," he said. "I'm going to sit in the cutter in front of the gate, wherever you're visiting, all afternoon, and if you try to go out with anybody else he's got to see me before he gets you."

And she laughed—though she blushed little, too—he continued, seriously.

"If you think I'm not in earnest you're at liberty to make quite a big experiment!"

He laughed again. "I don't think you've had so large a compliment as that," she said, "especially on such short notice—and yet, I don't think I'll go with you."

"You're ready at 10 minutes after two?"

"No, I won't."

"Yes," she said, "I will!" And her partner for the next dance arrived, wearing with searching.

"Don't forget, I've got the third now," George called after her.

"And every third one after that."

"I know!" she called over her partner's shoulder—and her voice was amused—but she was far beneath his planning for the future. She had a vague, momentadefiance:

"What do you want to be?" she said. "Your mother and—

AFTERNOON FROCKS MUST BE ELABORATE THIS SUMMER

NEW YORK,
April 12.

THE women are already making plans for a gay and festival summer, or at the seashore. And the shops along the avenue are urging them on displaying fascinating evening
gowns and dressy afternoon frocks.

For several years the afternoon frock has been a rather simple affair made of voile or better organdie, but to be in style this year must possess some afternoon frocks that are quite elaborate.

Georgettes and crepe chiffon gracefully draped, sometimes in white, or perhaps run with a bit of dyed lace, are being shown. Then there are those exquisite little dresses which come from France. They are of net or chiffon-blouson and elaborately embroidered. Usually there are four different kinds of lace are used on them, a popular combination being Irish lace filet and Val. Sashes of all colored ribbons of different widths, are the most interesting features of many of the dainty little afternoon dresses.

The dress in the center above was worn in one of the new plays and from the number, on the same order, that have been shown in the shops lately, they will be very smart this summer. The underskirt and vestee are of white chiffon trimmed with tiny silk flowers and bow-knots and fancy figures of Val lace. Under this are several layers of flesh-colored chiffon. The overdress is made of chartreuse gros de Londres and is lined with a dark turquoise taffeta. Ruchings and sash are also of the turquoise. A band of salmon pink satin about an inch wide is on the bottom of the underskirt.

The puffed sleeves are of white silk net.

For the next dresses some very elaborate, some "fussy," and others very simple. All over sequin dresses in a new shade, which is an unusually dark blue called "Moonlight," are seen in many of the shops. They are usually made very plain with possibly a long trailing streamer made of tulle of the same color.

The gown itself was very plain, with a fish-tail train and the back very low. With it was worn a necklace of diamonds and emeralds set in platinum, also a ring and bracelet to match. Emerald green satin slippers is one of them. The underskirt and girdle are of silver cloth. The overdress is of hydrangea blue chiffon which crosses in the front and is caught up on each side and across the back with flowers and berries in soft silk. The Flowers are also on the waist and trail across the middle. The upper part of the waist is of blue chiffon and the shoulder straps are of silver.

All except the very small of silk cloth were recently at the theater.

very low. With it was worn a necklace of diamonds and emeralds set in platinum, also a ring and bracelet to match. Emerald green satin slippers were opened on each side.

Silk evening wraps are much in evidence in the shops. Some are embroidered, some trimmed with frills, ruchings or puffings. Many are of a two-toned silk, the darker shade on the outside. Others are lined with chiffon. The one sketched above is of the green gros de

Taffeta dresses are shown for the debutante. They are quite short
and fairly tight.
A very attractive one (sketched in upper left) has been seen recently in one of the smart shops. It was of pale blue taffeta
which had a silver sheen to it.
The waist was of the taffeta with a round neck and
silver lace, with
sequins over it
was let in above
the waistline. The top of the skirt
was of the same
lace. A band of the taffeta went all around the hips forming pockets. A sachet of narrow orchid
satin ribbon tied in a bow in the back and the ends hung to the bottom of the skirt. Another taffeta dress (sketched) was of white, the waist
was a straight
bodice and came down to the knee.
The skirt was made of four puffs, one on either side and in the front and back, with a garland of flowers on each. The skirt was opened on each side.

BACHELOR GIRL'S REFLECTIONS.

EVERY day is "another day" for a man—and every girl is another sentimental interest.

In a bachelor's opinion, all girls are divided into two classes:
"Man haters" and "man hunters." And it's difficult to say which inspires him with the greater terror.

In love, when a man's conscience begins to work, it is usually a sign that his heart has gone on a strike.

One whiff of a woman's perfume sometimes makes a man think of moonlight, Venice, poetry, old love, and ANOTHER girl—all in the same moment.

The way to a man's heart is usually through the very bad management of the woman who preceded you, rather than through your own remarkable skill.

It is very simple to cure your marital troubles if only you can diagnose them; but most people fancy that they are suffering from soul starvation, when it is merely domestic indigestion.

The most successful men are not those who have been inspired with a desire to live up to a noble woman's ideals, but those who have perspired in the effort to satisfy some foolish woman's whims.

Why is it that, in dealing with a woman, the average man will back a box of bon bons (or roses) and a little cheap flattery against all the logic of Plato, Marcus Aurelius and Herbert Spencer?

Before marriage, a lover's words are too good to be true—
after marriage, too true to be palatable.

The Secret of Old Age

By DOROTHY DIX

A MAN in Missouri has just celebrated his 102d birthday, and he declared the reason that he has reached this ripe old age is not because he did not smoke or drink, but because he never argued.

It is discovered at last.
The secret of longevity is never to argue. This scientific fact will amaze the world, for we have all been committed to exactly the opposite of theory. We have thought that it was the disputations who never died. It seemed to us that they lived on forever, although, at any time, we could have spared them without a murmur, and registered, as movie fans say, perfect resignation to the dispensations of Providence at their heads.

Desired. They are scarcely clad, the better to advertise their charms.
Their faces are painted, and their feet are encased in the smallest possible shoes, and these are made to show in the most attractive, seduc-tive manner. Men especially trained are engaged to carry these floats.

Competent carriers are in position to impart suggestive movements to the bodies of the girls swinging over their heads.—From "Asia" magazine.

Burke Will Pitch Rogers in Third Game With Cards

Rickey Reverses Previous Judgment and Names Doak or Meadows.

WEILMAN HURLS 5 ROUNDS

Tall Left-Hander Fails to "Cut Loose," However, in Practice Game.

A pair of right-handers, Tom Rogers for the Browns and Bill Doak or Lee Meadows for the Cardinals, are early selections to hurl in the third game of the spring series, booked for this afternoon at Sportsman's Park. However, because of the chilly day, both managers may make an eleventh hour switch.

Burke, the Tennessee hurler, is in tip-top shape and able to go nine innings, at as fast a pace as was set by Sotherton and Davenport, according to Burke. However, Doak and Meadows are both veterans and may not be at their best.

It is up to either Spittin' Bill or Meadows to halt the Browns, as the American Leaguers at present are 2 up on their rivals in the local spring battles.

Hickey Changes Batting Order.

At noon today, following the usual "skull" practice, taken in lieu of field play, Hickey announced there would be a change of batting order. For the first time this season the game will open with Heathcote in the outfield. He will bat in third place above Stock, leaving the batting order as follows:

Shutout. 1st.
Koob. 2d.
Heathcote cf.
Stock 3b.
Hornby ss.
Paulette 1b.
Fisher 2b.
Cheney c.
Meadows (probable pitcher).

Brown Hold Long Workout.

Manager Burke sent his charges through a long workout at Sportsman's Park yesterday afternoon. The players got on the field a little after 1 p.m. and did not quit until 4. During the course of the afternoon a practice tilt between the regulars and Austins was played with the former winning, 10-0. Koob and Weilman pitched for the Browns, while Leopold and Leifeld for the losers. After the "reggs" had tallied three off Leifeld, Weilman yelled at Austin: "Well, Jim, guess I'll have to sell the franchise tonight."

Weilman Hurts Five Frames.

Despite the fact that he pitched five innings and allowed only three hits and passed only one batter during that time, Carl Weilman, the southpaw, did not show anything startling. Weilman did not use any change of pace. He had the Yanks gams hitting long flies most of the time. He did not use a free motion while tossing the ball and it probably will be some time before he is able to find his place on the hill.

Lowdermilk Shows Up Well.

Grover Lowdermilk showed up well in the four rounds he worked. He was found for one run. However, in the fourth, after Mayer had singled, he fanned Koob and Tobin and forced Gedon to foul out.

Infield in Extra Workouts.

Jimmy Burke is leaving no stone unturned to tighten up his infield. After the game, he gave them a half hour of work. One of the features brought out was cutting off runners at the plate. The infielders took their places in the diamond and Burke would hammer hard grounders at them. Instead of throwing to first, the ball would be tossed to the plate to catch imaginary runners. This work was kept up for 10 minutes.

Burke Coaches Robertson.

Gene Robertson, the former local municipal shortstop, was given some instructions as to how to play batted and thrown balls by Burke. Robertson has a habit of playing batted balls from the side. However, Burke instructed him to get in front of the sphere both when batted and thrown.

Miller Due Here Today.

According to the last letter received by the club management from Mrs. Jack Miller, the Cardinal infelder is due to report to the club today. Miller, it was published in New York, arrived in this country from overseas last week and has been at his home in New Jersey.

Regulars Beat Subs 4-2.

In yesterday's practice game, the Regulars gained a 4-2 decision over the Subs. Moore and Horstman pitched for the winning side, while Tuero and Reinhardt were the losing moundmen.

Max Carey Looks 'Em Over.

Outfielder Max Carey of the Pittsburgh team was a visitor at Cardinal Field. The Pirates were training in Birmingham, Ala., and Carey stopped off to spend a few days at home.

Exhibition Games.

Detroit 5, Boston Nationals 2.
Giant 4, Washington 1.

Chicago Cubs 16, El Paso Millers 9.

Cincinnati 14, Kansas City 6.

Sherman 5, Chicago White Sox 1.

Braves Better Than in 1914, Miracle Manager Declares

George Stallings Thinks His Squad Will Make a Good Fight for the Flag, if All His Stars Come Through—Every Department Seems Good, Except the Outfield.

No. 7—The Boston Braves.

LYNCHBURG, Va., April 15.—Good pitching, a tight defense and a fairly strong punch will be presented by the Braves in the coming campaign, judging by their play in the series with the Tigers. Of course, the return of "Rabbit" Maranville will round out the infield, and Hank Gowdy will place the catching staff where it belongs, but judging by present stock on hand the tribe in 1919 will be considerably stronger than last year.

The roster, as shown above, includes several capable pitchers, a great catching staff and a fine line of hounds. Hearn and Wickland are hounds; McGraw is with the army of occupation in France and is not figured on; Maranville just arrived and Gowdy is still in France.

All the others have trained at Columbus, Ga., and the majority of them figured in the exhibition series with the Tigers.

Manager George Stallings is most optimistic regarding prospects of the Braves. He figures his material is superior to that which won premier honors in 1914, but he will not hold a pat hand. This season the tribe is favored by change in ownership, a big plus.

CATCHERS—Hank Gowdy, Arth'l Wilson, Walter Tragesser, John McLean, George Keating.

OUTFIELDERS—Joe Riggert, Ray Powell, Joe Kelly, Eddie King, Tom Miller and Al Wickland.

PITCHERS—Dick Rudolph, Arth'l Nef, Dana Fillingim, John Scott, Al Demaree, Pat Racine, Hugh McQuillan, Bunny Hearn, Bill James, Carl Northrop, Lefty George and Ray Keating.

MURPHY No Longer a Bantam.

Murphy will be heavier than for most of his previous fights.

He weighed but 112 pounds for Lynch when they met before. Tonight he will be around 120 pounds.

Puryear claims Jim will be his figure, though small enough to make this good.

Murphy has fought two fights within the past few weeks, one against the Tribe in one of them. The bout is not much as an indication of tonight's possibilities. Murphy is a fast, active fighter who is always trying. He should give a good account of himself.

Puryear is about 25 or 26 years old and has been fighting for a number of years. The peculiar feature of his career is his arrival at near-fame so late in his career.

Tonight's bout will be under the auspices of the Rialto Athletic Club and the usual "before 6 o'clock" ticket conditions will prevail. The highest price is $2.50—a reduction from former figures.

Washington U. Track Team Not to Be Sent to Drake Relay Contests

College athletics will be revived in the Missouri Valley Conference, Saturday, when athletes from over 20 universities, colleges and high schools gather at Des Moines to compete in the tenth annual Drake relays.

Some other day remarkably well in practice but fell somewhat below expectations under fire in the games with Detroit and has given way to Blackburne, while Rawlings has been filling in at second. Schreiber needs a new partner and probably will be returned to the Lawrence club of the Eastern League. Blackburne seems destined to be Maranville's understudy at short and in event of Herzig not being available, "Rabbit" probably will be used at second.

Riggert an Excellent Batter.

Riggert was the leading batter of the American Association during the past two years, and appears to be the logical centerfielder. He has been batting and fielding up to par. Powell will slot into the Cardinals' sunfish in the Rialto Field, replacing Wickland. The latter desired a two-year contract and an increase in salary which the club considered unfair. New negotiations have been dropped. Riggert will be named to send the Washington University relay team to the games. However, with the recent rule ruling baseball ranking freshmen from competition, the team was disrupted.

Parks Another Sister.

At Ann Arbor, Mich., the undergraduates are trying to convince themselves that the Wolverine school has another George Sister. He is a youthful twirler named Parks, who is showing a great deal in early practice. Says the Michigan U. Journal: "Since Sister's day there has been a Ruth at Michigan to approach him. However, Parks shows that he has become a logical successor to the St. Louis first baseman."

MOORE SHADES SANDOW

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 15.—"Pal" Moore of Memphis, who defeated Jim "Widie" Butler, flyweight champion, and recently won a narrow decision over Pete Herman of New Orleans, bantamweight champion, last night, was given the critic's decision over Sammy Sandow of Cincinnati, who had previously won a popular verdict over him in an eight-round no-decision contest.

The newcomer King, who has won with the Athletics, has won a permanent place on the roster, but Miller, who was claimed by the Yankees, and then awarded to the tribe of the National Commission, needs more experience.

The greatest asset the tribe has is Soddy, who was incapacitated last year in an automobile accident. His right wrist was cruelly lacerated but his recovery has been marvelous. He is regarded as the makings of an excellent player, but more so as a hitter. His forte has been making home runs as a pinch hitter, and this heavy batting is not a flash in the pan or the usual early spring clouting. Since playing baseball his average with the stick has been around .300. He is built along the lines of "Babe" Ruth and swings just as viciously.

Of course the tribe will bank on its best pitching from Rudolph, Nef and Fillingim, with Scott rounding

Puryear, Reigning Bantam Curiosity, Late in 'Arriving'

Oklahoma Fighter, at the Age of 25, Is Now Winning Place in the Sun.

MEETS MURPHY TONIGHT

Local Boxer, Defeated in Former Encounter, Expects to Reverse Previous Result.

By John E. Wray

Earl Puryear, one of the surprises of the present bantamweight boxing campaign, will be with us this evening at the Odeon. This dignified auditorium will for the first time echo to the shouts of "Knock him block off, Chimmie," "Finish him, Earl" and other merciful expressions incident to modern gladiatorial combat.

Puryear, who is matched with the constrictions and hard-hitting Jimmy Murphy, was not considered above the ordinary when he first appeared before a local crowd against the same opponent he meets tonight. Nevertheless, despite a style that did not appeal to the crowd, he was the winner on points.

Puryear on that occasion thrust out one arm and leaned his head away back, as far from the enemy's glove as possible. He was a difficult objective to reach in this position, but at the same time the position made an aggressive, rushing fight against him an utter impossibility.

Puryear Has Been Reconstructed.

Puryear's manager declares Earl has abandoned this system so long as he has forgotten it. He declares Puryear is now fast, aggressive and a good two-handed boxer with a "kick."

This much is certain—that since he came out of Camp Funston, where he was one of the mainstays of Tommy Ryan's crack boxer team, he has developed into a high-class boxer. Mary Browne are better than Miss Molla Bjurstrom. A meeting of the Eastern star with either of the Californians in actual competition would prove to the satisfaction of the whole country just what is to be expected.

The Western Star also has another woman star, in the person of Miss Helen Baker, who is expected East this year. Last September she surprised her followers with a victory over Florence Sutton and her sister, Mrs. Bruce.

May Sutton Bundy Coming Back.

Before the armistice was signed May Sutton Bundy told a California tennis writer that after the war she expected to invade the East again and return to the game.

She believes that both Mrs. Bundy and Miss Mary Browne are better than Misses Bjurstrom and Sutton.

Both are expected to be in the Diamond Cup competition.

Another star of the diamond arriving yesterday was Walter "Rabbit" Maranville, shortstop on the Boston Nationals, who came into port with the Atlantic Fleet. He was a coxswain on the flagship Pennsylvania, but received his discharge papers before leaving the ship.

Britt Beats Jackson

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—For the second consecutive year Britt, master of a slow six-round bout here last night with Willie Jackson, the New York lightweight, Britt outgunned the Eastern star in four of the six rounds and was the aggressor throughout.

TONIGHT'S FIGHT CARD AT THE ODEON

Feature bout: Earl Puryear, Tulsa, Okla., vs. Jimmy Murphy, St. Louis, eight rounds.

Slider Jeraek, St. Louis, vs. Fred Nelson, San Francisco, eight rounds, 150 pounds, 3 p.m.

Patsy Flanagan, Tulsa, Okla., vs. Willie Coloma, St. Louis, eight rounds, 118 pounds, 3 p.m.

Referee: Walter Heisner.

Battle ground: Odeon Theater, Grand and Flinney avenues.

Time: First bout at 8:30 p.m.

California's Net Stars, Women and Men, After Titles

McLoughlin, Johnston and Even Mrs. May Sutton Bundy to Campaign This Year.

FIRST EVENT IS JULY 10

East-West Teams Will Battle July 10 in Opening Outdoor Feature.

Tough Luck.

Coming up on the train from San Antonio, some of the Browns got into a little peniculite game. In lieu of a piece of paper they kept the score of the game with an indelible pencil on Bert Gallia's collar. When Bert started to put on his collar he was more or less peed, to find it all covered with figures. As his other collar was in the wash, Bert had to blow himself for a new neckpiece.

By Davison Oberar.

Missouri Field Secretary W. L. T. A.

Throughout their native State, California, tennis players are asking this question: "What will California do in tennis this year?" Such stars as McLoughlin, Johnston, Griffin, Roberts, Dawson and Herd will, no doubt, be mustered out of the service in time to take part in tournaments this summer.

None of the above mentioned players has yet announced plans for an Eastern invasion. However, the California Lawn Tennis Association has promised to send a team to compete in the East vs. West matches at Cincinnati on July 10. It is hoped that both McLoughlin and Williams, another former champion, will be able to play in these matches to determine which they can show a "come back" on.

May Sutton Bundy Coming Back.

Before the armistice was signed May Sutton Bundy told a California tennis writer that after the war she expected to invade the East again and return to the game.

She believes that both Mrs. Bundy and Miss Mary Browne are better than Misses Bjurstrom and Sutton.

A German Ideal.

Robert W. Bonynge, president of the New York Republican Club, said the other day:

"It's a good thing to write a square deal for little nations into the peace terms. Little nations in the past have certainly got the small end of it. They've been treated, especially by German, as Jobbins was treated by Battling Bill."

Battling Bill borrowed Jobbins' best black trousers and then, on one excuse or another wouldn't give them back. A month passed and Jobbins sent an urgent message to Bill.

"He must have them trousers back today," Battling Bill said to the messenger.

"He's going to a funeral."

"They ain't fit to wear to a funeral now," said Battling Bill.

"I've been workin' in the boiler shop in 'em."

"Oh, dear!" said the messenger.

"What is poor Mr. Jobbins to do, then?"

"Do?" said Battling Bill. "Why, let him do the same as I done—borrow a pair!"—Pittsburg Sun.
